

Why Not Take BP On Exam Table?

- The back is not supported. This causes back muscle contraction and increases diastolic BP by ~ 6 mm Hg.
- The feet are not supported.
- The center of the cuff is below heart level adding 2 mm Hg for each inch below. In this case about 4 mm Hg.

