

Cassie Lewis

- Provided tobacco prevention booth at St. Francis Co. youth summit and Brinkley School District East Lab
- Provided tobacco prevention presentation for St. Francis Co. Century 21 afterschool program
- Presented nutrition information at the youth Heroes Hiking walk in Forrest City
- Conducted meeting with PHP staff for planning Emergency Preparedness training for school staff in August; made contact with OEM in St. Francis Co. and conducted community meetings for PHP in St. Francis and Monroe Counties.
- Attended Essentials for Healthy Homes Training-16 hrs.
- Attended statewide CHNS/CHPS meeting and 5th Annual SE Region Health Conference
- Made visits to Hughes School District with HHI Administrator and HHI members to talk about plans for upcoming Kids Play Day

Lisa England (no report received as of 05/07/13 - 2:00 PM)

- Provided assistance to the SEARK ESC CSH AmeriCorps Program
- Provided tobacco prevention and nutrition booths at the Family Fun Fest in Monticello (approx. 200 children participated in interactive events)
- Collaborated with the Southeast Arkansas Trauma Regional Advisory Council to set up child safety car seat checks at the Family Fun Fest in Monticello

Juanita Buckmaster

- School visits (four schools in Jefferson County over a period of seven days) - Presented to grades 3-5 using curriculum "What Kids Need to Know About Drugs" and "Dusty the Dragon and Dr. Margie Hogan Talk About Tobacco" material for students grades K-2. Students K-2 were presented on tobacco only while grades 3-5 presentation included: medicines, tobacco, alcohol and marijuana with TAKE HOME SHEETS for parents; students gave a tobacco-free pledge (impacted 751 students)
- Presented in an assembly type meeting two times about the importance of physical activity; students started a walking contest that will go on for 4 weeks. The principal inspired a contest between the 6th graders and the 7th graders to see who can log the most time and will recognize the winners (impacted approx. 378 students)
- Attended the Heartland Collaborative IHP Learning Collaborative in Kansas City, MO on April 22-23, 2013 along with Dr. Patricia Scott and Paula Smith. The learning collaborative focuses on improving the process of IHP development and implementation and broadening the network of colleagues.
- School visits: Delivered Sex Still Has a Price Tag DVD to five schools within ARESC area to be utilized in health class or taught by nurse for education of sex-related problems i.e. teen pregnancy, sexually transmitted diseases through abstinence teaching.

- Began preparations for a school nurse training to be held at ARES in August with one half day set aside for emergency preparedness; met with the LHU Administrator and the Jefferson County OEM

Rosemary Withers

- Implemented and facilitated Cooking Matters for Adults at the Store (lesson 5 at Wal-Mart) for Sally Terral Community Center (10 participants attended)
- Contacted Director of Pine Bluff Parks and Recreation, Interim Supt for Pine Bluff School District, and Principal at James Matthews to discuss Joint Use Agreement (JUA). Emailed JUA application and guidelines to above contacts and Wellness Committee Chairs.
- Submitted two articles for SE Region Newsletter: Cooking Matters for Adults and Jefferson County HHI Youth & Growing Healthy Communities celebration; distributed newsletter to Growing Healthy Communities; Youth Committee, and Wellness Committees.
- Attended the following workshops/meetings: CHNS/CHPS, Arkansas County Partners in Health, and CHAC.
- Participated in Collaboration and Communication workshop and the SE Region 5th Annual Health Conference