

EMSP Renewal Requirements

---

Section 1: All levels of licensure must complete:

1. All relicensure Fees
2. A signed copy (front & back) of current CPR card. This can be any of the following as long as it meets the requirement set forth in EMS Rules Section IX. C. 1. c. (Page 43)
  - a. American Heart Association HealthCare Provider
  - b. American Red Cross CPR for the Professional Rescuer
  - c. Other

Details for all of the following can be located in the EMS Rules and Regulations, Section IX. C. 2. a-c., Instructor Requirements are in, Section IX. C. 3. (Page 45)

Section 1: EMT requirements included one of the following:

1. 24 Hour Transition/Refresher Course (Inc. 2 hrs. Pediatric CE)
2. 48 Hours CE (Inc. 2 hrs. Pediatric Specific CE)

Section 2: AEMT requirements included one of the following:

1. 36 Hour Advanced EMT Transition/Refresher Course
2. 72 Hours CE (Inc. 4 hrs. Pediatric Specific CE) 24 Hours must be Advanced

Section 3: Paramedic requirements included the following

1. A signed copy (front & back) of current American Heart ACLS card.

and (One) of the following

2. 48 Paramedic Transition/Refresher Course and 24 Continuing Education Units.
3. 72 Hours CE (Inc. 4 hrs. Pediatric Specific CE) 48 Hours must be Paramedic Level
4. Challenge and pass the NREMT Paramedic cognitive exam, and Twenty-Four (24) hours with documentation of skills competency from the Services Medical Director or their designee

Section 4: Instructor requirements included the following, and the above documentation for your level of instructor licensure

1. (8) hours of Continuing Education at the Instructor level. (required)
2. signed letter of good standing from the Training Site you are aligned with (required)

and (One) of the following:

3. One (1) full EMT course teaching more than 50% of the course
4. Two (2) EMT courses as co-instructor
5. Forty-eight (48) hours of classroom instruction with a letter from the lead instructor or EMS Education Program verifying hours and topics of instruction taught.