

Arkansas Rules Examination Information

Per the Rules and Regulations Governing the Practice of Licensed Lay Midwifery in Arkansas, the Arkansas Department of Health (ADH) will administer the Arkansas Rules Examination at least three (3) times each year (Section 605). The test will be administered at ADH on dates chosen and publicized by ADH (Section 201.2.a).

Applicants who meet the requirements listed in the Rules and Regulations must have their application packet completed and submitted to ADH at least sixty (60) days* prior to the testing date to allow ample time for the review process to be completed.

*Transitional apprentices who must successfully complete the North American Registry of Midwives (NARM) licensing exam prior to taking the Arkansas Rules Examination are encouraged to submit their application to ADH at least ninety (90) days prior to the ADH testing date.
